PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT WORKSHOP

Decoding Dyslexia

speech pathology TASMANIA

About

Format: In-person training Length: 1 hour + optional 30min question time

This professional development workshop provides a clear, research-informed exploration of dyslexia, unpacking both its historical foundations and current understandings. Participants will gain insight into how perspectives on dyslexia have evolved and what this means for effective classroom practice.

Facilitated by: Marshall Roberts, Orton Gillingham Educator with Speech Pathology Tasmania, chairperson of Linda Mckillop, Certified Practising Speech Pathologist | Certified Dyslexia, Reading & Orton-Gillingham Practitioner | Certified Master Trainer for Orton Gillingham in Australia

Suitable for: School teachers, teacher assistants, literacy leads and English coordinators, learning support and intervention teachers, new and experienced teachers

Logistics:

- Training date to be negotiated to suit both parties.
- The enquirer (business or organisation) will provide a suitable venue for the training group.
- Access to a whiteboard, markers, Wi-Fi, and a projector or large smart TV screen is required.
- A quote will be provided on request (depending on location and any additional requirements).
- Each participant will receive a certificate of completion.

What's included

Goals of the training:

- Build a clear understanding of Dyslexia and how it impacts learning.
- Develop confidence to support students with dyslexia in the classroom.
- Understand dyslexia and how it may present in different learners.
- Apply evidence-based strategies to better support student outcomes.

What you'll explore:

- The history of dyslexia in research and public discourse.
- Key developments in research and educational theory, including areas of misalignment.
- Exploring the question: Is dyslexia real?
- How dyslexia presents in learners.
- Evidence-based approaches: what works and why.

Marshall Roberts

Enquire Now

programs@spt.com.au

(03) 6234 5717

www.spt.com.au

110 Elizabeth St
Hobart TAS 7000